Day 2 – Wednesday, July 21 | B/L
Today is the highlight of your Utah journey with a visit to the newly restored Salt Lake Temple during its limited public open house. After this remarkable experience, enjoy free time to explore Temple Square, including the historic Tabernacle, Conference Center and beautifully landscaped grounds.

Later, enjoy a group lunch before traveling to Snowbird Resort and boarding the iconic Aerial Tram to Hidden Peak. Ascending nearly 3,000 vertical feet, you'll be treated to breathtaking views of the Wasatch Mountains and surrounding alpine scenery. At the 11,000-foot summit, take in the fresh mountain air, capture memorable photos and enjoy one of Utah's most spectaculr vistas.

This evening, return to the hotel and enjoy the remainder of the day at leisure. Relax or explore the area and dine on your own at one of the local restaurants.

Day 3 – Thursday, July 22 | B/D
Spend a relaxing morning at Wasatch Back Alpacas, where you'll meet these gentle animals in a beautiful mountain setting. During a guided tour, learn how their incredibly soft fleece is transformed into luxurious yarn and why alpaca fiber is prized for its warmth, softness and lightweight feel. You'll also have time to interact with the alpacas, take photos and browse the farm shop for unique alpaca-made gifts.

Next, travel to Park City for a guided tour of Utah Olympic Park, one of the lasting legacies of the 2002 Winter Olympic Games. Ride to the top of the world's highest Nordic ski jumps for spectacular views and learn what it takes for elite athletes to compete at the highest level. You'll also see one of the world's fastest sliding tracks, where athletes train in bobsled, luge and skeleton. Afterward, explore the Alf Engen Ski Museum and Eccles 2002 Salt Lake Winter Olympic Museum, featuring inspiring stories, memorabilia and interactive exhibits celebrating Utah's Olympic heritage.

Following time for lunch on your own, board the Deer Creek Express for a scenic journey aboard the historic Heber Valley Railroad. Travel through the picturesque Heber Valley along the shores of Deer Creek Reservoir, taking in views of sparkling water, rolling farmland and the majestic Wasatch Mountains.

This evening, gather for a farewell dinner before attending a rehearsal of the world-renowned Tabernacle Choir at Temple Square. Watch talented volunteer singers and musicians prepare for upcoming performances and enjoy a unique behind-the-scenes glimpse into the artistry and dedication that have made the choir an internationally recognized symbol of Utah for more than a century.

Day 4 – Friday, July 23 | B
After a memorable journey through Utah, it's time to begin your journey home. Enjoy breakfast at the hotel before boarding your motorcoach for the transfer to the airport. With wonderful memories of historic landmarks, breathtaking mountain scenery, and special experiences shared with fellow travelers, you will depart for your flight home with lasting impressions of this unforgettable adventure.
