Day-to-Day Itinerary

Day 1 – Sunday, August 15 | D

Board your deluxe motor coach this morning and begin your journey to northern Wisconsin. Start by taking an unforgettable ride up Copper Peak in a chairlift, climbing towards the summit of the world's largest ski-flying hill. Once at the top, enjoy sweeping panoramic views of the surrounding forests and Lake Superior before making your way back down. It's a spectacular way to see the beauty of Michigan's Upper Peninsula from a whole new perspective.

Continue your journey north to Ashland where you will check into the Hotel Chequamegon, beautifully situated along the shores of Lake Superior. Then gather with your fellow travelers for a welcome dinner offering the perfect opportunity to relax, enjoy a delicious meal, and look forward to the adventures ahead.

Day 2 – Monday, August 16 | B/L
After breakfast at the hotel, make your way to the waterfront and board the Madeline Island Ferry for a scenic crossing to Wisconsin's largest Apostle Island. Upon arrival, meet your step-on-guide for a fascinating tour of Madeline Island. As you travel along the island's picturesque roads, your guide will share stories of its rich history, natural beauty and unique island communities while pointing out notable landmarks and scenic vistas.

Following your guided tour of the island, enjoy some free time to explore the island at your own pace. Browse the local shops, take a leisurely stroll or simply soak in the islands unique atmosphere before boarding the Madeline Island Ferry for the scenic ride back to the mainland. Then enjoy lunch as a group in Bayfield.

Continue your Apostle Islands adventure with an unforgettable Grand Tour cruise through the stunning waters of Lake Superior. As you journey among the islands, take in the area's remarkable natural beauty, including towering sea caves, historic lighthouses, lush forests and rugged shorelines. Along the way, knowledgeable guides will bring the landscape to life with stories of the region's fascinating history, geology and ecology.

Day 3 – Tuesday, August 17 | B/L/D
This morning, check out of your hotel before setting sail on a memorable Michigan Island Lighthouse Tour. As you cruise through the waters surrounding the Apostle Islands, take in spectacular views of rugged shorelines, wooded islands, sea caves, and the vast blue waters of Lake Superior. Concessions are available onboard, making it easy to grab a snack and enjoy a mid-morning treat while taking in the scenery. Upon arriving at Michigan Island, discover the historic Michigan Island Lighthouse, the oldest lighthouse in the Apostle Islands, and learn about the lighthouse keepers who helped guide ships safely through these waters. Enjoy some time exploring the island and taking in the peaceful surroundings before boarding the cruise for the return journey.

After your cruise, enjoy a group lunch before saying farewell to the Apostle Islands and beginning your journey home. Sit back, relax, and share memories of your adventure as you travel back home, stopping along the way for a convenient boxed dinner.
