Friday, December 5 (D)

Arrive in festive Asheville, nestled in the Appalachian Mountains. This evening join your fellow travelers for a welcome dinner.

Saturday, December 6 (B, Afternoon Tea, D)

This morning, explore the grounds and gardens including the Conservatory bedecked in holiday floral displays. Enjoy Christmas shopping, special exhibits and wine tasting at Antler Hill Village before we sit down as a group for afternoon tea at the Inn on Biltmore – just as the Vanderbilts did! This evening, enjoy a delicious dinner before partaking in a Vanderbilt family tradition, a Candlelight Christmas inside the mansion. With over 60 beautifully decorated Christmas trees and festive holiday decorations throughout the mansion, this is sure to be a highlight of your time at the Biltmore.

Sunday, December 7 (B, L, D)

Joined by a local guide, we'll explore Blue Ridge culture and history in the city of Asheville. Experience another holiday tradition: the annual National Gingerbread House Competition featured at the historic Grove Park Inn. Together we'll enjoy a gourmet seasonal Grand Lunch in the holiday-inspired dining room. Then, have time to meander the tree-lined streets and 40 unique shops in Biltmore Village. This evening we'll walk through the North Carolina Arboretum Winter Light Display showcasing over one million lights.

Monday, December 8 (B)

Enjoy a relaxing morning to finish up any last-minute holiday shopping or stroll the grounds for a final look before returning home filled with spectacular holiday memories of time spent reliving the holiday traditions of the Vanderbilt family.
